U. S. GRANT UNIVERSITY.

GENERAL STATEMENT.

LOCATION.

The location of U. S. Grant University, at Athens and Chattanooga, Tennessee, is eminently favorable for a great and a permanent work. It is in a portion of the central South noted for pure air, excellent water, mild climate, and beautiful scenery. It is readily accessible from all parts of the country.

Athens, which is 1,000 feet above sea level, and apart from all miasmatic influences, is at the junction of the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia, and Tellico Railroads. From it can be seen the Smoky and Chilhowee Mountains. The campus contains over twenty acres, upon which are six large buildings and five cottages. Here are located the Academic Department, the College of Liberal Arts, and the Departments of Music, Art, Business and Elocution.

Chattanooga is at the terminus of many railroad lines, and is one of the most enterprising cities in the South. The campus commands glimpses of the Tennessee River, and an unobstructed view of Missionary and Walden's Ridges, and of Lookout Mountain. The building is large and commodious. This city is the site of the professional schools—Theology, Medicine and Law.

FOUNDING.

The nucleus of the present material equipment in Athens, came into the possession of the Methodist Episcopal Church by purchase in 1867. In the same year the Institution was incorporated as East Tennessee Wesleyan College, but was afterwards known as the East Tennessee Wesleyan University. In 1886 the charter was changed, making it Grant Memorial University.

In the same year Chattanooga University was founded. In 1889 these two institutions were united under one Board of Trustees and under the one charter name of U. S. Grant University.

The University is under the auspices of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and owes much of its usefulness to the liberality of friends and to the loyal and intelligent support of the Holston, Blue Ridge, Alabama, Virginia, Georgia, Kentucky, Central Tennessee and Florida Conferences.

ORGANIZATION.

The University is organized with the following departments :

- I. The Academic Department.

- II. The Collegiate Department.
- III. The Theological Department.
- IV. The Medical Department.
- V. The Law Department.
- VI. The Pharmaceutical Department.
- VII. The Music Department.
- VIII. The Elocution Department.
- IX. The Business Department.
- X. The Art Department.

MATERIAL EQUIPMENTS AT ATHENS.

Besides university buildings which provide for class-rooms, libraries, society halls and chapel, Bennett Hall, with thirty-two excellent rooms, furnishes an attractive home for young ladies. Hatfield Hall has been put in thorough repair, and offers ample accommodations for thirty young men.

The Ritter Industrial Home is an elegant new building under the auspices of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the M. E. Church. [See full description on another page.]

There are several cottages for the accommodation of those desiring to board themselves. Many of our very best students take advantage of this cheap method, nor are they reduced in the estimation of the faculty and their fellow students because of their self-sacrifice and heroism.

DEGREES.

The University confers the following degrees :

Bachelor of Arts (A. B.) upon all who complete the classical course of study.

Bachelor of of Philosophy (Ph. B.) upon all who complete the philosophical course.

Bachelor of Science (B. S.) upon all who complete the scientific course.

Bachelor of Theology (S. T. B.) upon all Bachelors of Art who complete the theological course.

Bachelor of Music (Mus. B.) upon all who complete the course in music.

Bachelor of Oratory (B. O.) upon all who complete the course in elocution and oratory.

Also, the Post-graduate Degrees, Master of Arts (A. M.), Master of Philosophy (Ph. M.) and Master of Science (M. S.) upon Bachelors of Arts, of Philosophy and of Science, respectively, who after graduation, have successfully pursued studies under the direction of the Faculty for one year, or have engaged for three years in literary or professional work.

The degree, Doctor of Philosophy, will be conferred upon Masters of Science, Arts, or Philosophy, who successfully pass a written examination on the prescribed course of study. Information respecting the course of study, subjects and details of examination, expenses, etc., will be furnished upon application.

LITERARY SOCIETIES.

At Athens there are four literary societies, organized under the laws of the University: The Athenian and Philomathean, for gentlemen; the Sapphonian and Knightonian, for ladies. All have separate halls for meeting, a large, active membership and appropriate libraries.

Each Literary Society will be permitted to give one public entertainment during the year, under the direction of a member of the Faculty.

LECTURES.

During the winter months, lecturers are engaged to address the students on social and literary topics. As a matter of general culture, these courses have been of great interest and benefit to all classes of students.

MORAL AND RELIGIOUS CULTURE.

The University is pre-eminently a Christian school.

The young men maintain a Y. M. C. A. which holds regular weekly meetings.

All students are required to attend religious exercises in the University Chapel on each school day, and public worship in one of the churches Sabbath morning.

GOVERNMENT.

All regulations of the University relating to discipline will be in force during the intervals between the terms.

The regulations of the University are few and simple, based upon the usages of Christian homes and refined society. They appeal to the student's honor and self-respect, insist upon regular habits, inculcate respect for law and order, and inspire a love for the gentler and unselfish qualities that characterize the true gentleman and the refined lady. A faithful observance of the hours set apart for study, and regular and prompt attendance upon all classes, exercises, or other duties involved by the student's connection with the University, will be firmly insisted upon.

Students will be held responsible for damage done by them to any property of the University.

The association of ladies and gentlemen must be strictly in accordance with the regulations of the Faculty.

No meeting of students in the University buildings for the transaction of business, and no exercises whatever to which the public are admitted, whether by society or individual students, shall be held, except with the consent of the Faculty previously obtained.

The regulations of the University are printed in detail, together with such other information as may be of interest and benefit to new students, and may be obtained of any officer of the Faculty.

It is desired that all students examine them carefully before matriculating, as all who become members of the school must agree to conform to them, and anyone who persists in their violation, or who, in the judgment of the Faculty, exerts a bad influence in the school, will be dismissed without hesitation.

ELECTIVE STUDIES.

Students not candidates for degrees may pursue studies in any of the departments, provided they enter classes already formed, and are prepared to do successfully the work required. Candidates for degrees will, in certain cases, be permitted to substitute work or select studies from other departments.

All substitutions and selections must be of such character as shall not lower the grade of scholarship and culture. The approval of the Faculty, however, must be had in every such instance.

RECITATIONS AND EXAMINATIONS.

Each student is required to have not less than fifteen nor more than twenty recitations per week, except by special permission of the Faculty. A record is kept by each Professor, showing the grade of each student's daily work; and this, together with the result of a thorough written examination at the end of the term, must show an average of 70 in the scale of 100 before the student can be passed in any study.

New students must give satisfactory evidence as to their knowledge of the studies previously pursued by the class they wish to enter, either upon examination or by certificate of the principal of the school from which they come, and if, after one term, they are found to be ranked too high, will be reduced.

It is very important that students enter classes at the beginning of the term, and keep in mind that constant, prompt attendance is necessary for the attainment of high grades. Students must not leave classes, nor take up new studies, except upon written approval of the proper officers.

Candidates for degrees will not be permitted to pursue studies in advance of their class, nor will anyone be allowed to take studies for which he is not duly prepared.

Students in the University will not be permitted to take lessons from anyone outside the Faculty, except by express permission.

Students, not candidates for degrees, may pursue studies in any department for which they are prepared. Certificates showing the amount and grade of work done by them, will be given upon application to the Dean of the department.

EXPENSES.

The entire history of the University has been characterized by the efforts of its Trustees and Faculty to reduce the cost of a liberal education to such low figures that the poorest students need not be deterred on account of their financial condition. It is a source of great satisfaction that the efforts made in this direction have been so successful, and that students in the humblest circumstances are here able to obtain a liberal education, and prepare themselves for any of the practical and learned professions they may desire to pursue.

It is, without doubt, true, that no other institution of like grade, can offer such advantages for higher education at so little cost.

While a number of students board themselves, and work to pay their way, there are no social or class distinctions that separate them from those who have ample means. The University knows no aristocracy but character and merit, and the heroic efforts of poor students command universal respect and consideration from both students and Faculty.

From the following table of expenses the actual outlay in any department may be readily computed :

Tuition in Regular College Classes, per term.....	$10 00
Tuition in Preparatory Department, per term ...	6 00
Ministerial students half above rates.

Habits of economy and industry are encouraged in all, and every possible aid will be rendered worthy men and women in their efforts to keep their expenses low, and in surrounding them with home-like influences. Each G. A. R. Post in the Department of Tennessee is offered free tuition for one student in College, Preparatory or Mechanical classes. Ministers of the Gospel, in the regular work, and their families, will be allowed tuition in the regular College and Preparatory Classes at one-half the regular rates; but the Incidental Fee must be paid in full by every one who enters the University. No reduction will be made except in cases of prolonged sickness or unavoidable absence during more than one-half the term, when one-half the tuition paid will be refunded.

All charges for tuition, incidentals and rent must be paid in advance, and no professor will receive a student into his class except on presentation of a ticket showing that settlement has been made with the treasurer of the Faculty.

ACADEMIC DEPARTMENTS.

Realizing the importance of thorough and systematic preparation for higher studies and extended courses, the Trustees have arranged for concerted and harmonious action among the principal Seminaries and Academies that are tributary to the University, by the adoption of a uniform course of study leading to the regular college and technical classes.

Besides the department at Athens the following Scholastic Gymasia are comprised in the association, and students from them will be received without examination :

Powell's Valley Academy, Well Springs, Tenn,
Fuller Institute, Chucky City, Tenn.
Roanoke Academy, Roanoke, Va.
Leicester Academy, Leicester, N. C.
Mt. Zion Academy, Mt. Zion, Ga.
Oakland Academy, Laurel Gap, Tenn.

Ellijay Academy, Ellijay, Ga.

Graham Academy, Smyrna, N. C.
Murphy Collegiate Institute, Sevierville, Tenn.
Fair View College, Trap Hill, N. C.
Sunbright Academy, Sunbright, Tenn.

In this department three preparatory courses of study are offered : classical, philosophical and scientific, of three years each, leading to corresponding courses in the College of Liberal Arts. Even if only a limited time is available for attendance at school, it will be found preferable, in most cases, to take regular work.

Normal studies are provided for those who wish to prepare themselves for teaching.

A select course may be pursued by all who desire, provided the work chosen meets the approval of the Faculty, and the hours of recitation do not conflict.

Reports of scholarship and deportment are made out for each student at the close of each term.

A diploma will be conferred by order of the Board of Trustees upon any student completing a prescribed academic course.

On presentation of such diploma, the student may enter the college classes without examination.

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS,

ATHENS, TENN.

There are three courses of study provided in this department. The classical, the philosophical and the scientific. The classical course leads to the degree of bachelor of arts. It covers four years, and is designed to afford opportunity for acquiring a good general knowledge of a wide range of subjects, embracing ancient and modern languages, mathematics, history, natural science, literature and philosophy. The philosophical and the scientific courses are also arranged for four years, and lead to the degrees of bachelor of philosophy and bachelor of science, respectively. The aim, in all these courses, is general rather than special culture, and a symmetrical and carefully graduated development, rather than the exhaustive investigation of a few subjects to the neglect of others equally important.

LABORATORY.

The Physical Laboratory is provided with apparatus for the illustration of the laws of Mechanics, Heat, Sound, Light and Electricity; the latter important subject being especially well represented by electric lamps of various styles and sizes, electric motor, magnetic telephones, telegraphic instruments, with lines, microphones, induction coils and instruments of measurements.

For aid in the study of Natural History, an excellent collection of plants and animals has been provided.

In addition to a large number of minerals and fossils already arranged in the Cabinet, a new collection of minerals, ores and rocks has been received the past year, a gift of the Smithsonian Institute, Washington, D. C. This is a valuable collection, containing one hundred and thirty representative specimens, and affords an excellent opportunity for practical study in Geology and Mineralogy.

A fine microscope [Tolls], surveyors' instruments, including compass, and transit, are among the important pieces of apparatus.

WELSHOOT, CHN. C.

GENERAL STATEMENT.

The School of Theology of U. S. Grant University is an institution for ministerial training, established on the same basis as other theological schools of the Church.

The advance of general education and culture, the increasing demand for thoroughly educated and earnest ministers, both for home and foreign fields of labor, the widening of Christian thought, the constant improvement in means and methods of Christian activity, are among the imperative reasons for special theological training on the part of those called of God to the sacred office of the Christian ministry; and the aim of this institution is to equip such young men by a broad and thorough scholarship, that they will be able to serve in every good work as the Church may demand. The following extracts from the Discipline give the voice of the Church concerning such schools:

All candidates for our Ministry are earnestly advised to attend one or more of the Literary or Theological Institutions of our Church before applying to an Annual Conference for admission on trial.—Appendix, page 400.

Our Theological Schools, whose Professors are nominated or confirmed by the Bishops, exist for the benefit of the whole Church, and it is the duty of the presiding elders and pastors to direct the attention of candidates for our Ministry to the advantages afforded in these institutions.—Paragraph 344, section 3, page 183.

A Bishop may leave without appointment a preacher on trial, or a member of an Annual Conference desiring to attend any of our Literary or Theological Seminaries, whenever he shall be requested to do so by the Annual Conference, and it shall seem to him expedient; provided, however, that the time thus spent in school shall not count on that required for probation in the Annual Conference.—Paragraph 162, pages 102 and 103.

ADMISSION.

Each candidate for admission to the regular Triennial Course must produce a degree of A. B. from a reputable college, or satisfy the Faculty upon examination that he has had classical and literary training sufficient to pursue, without difficulty, the designated studies.

Candidates for admission who have had no classical training, but have a knowledge of the common English branches, will be admitted to the English Course.

Applicants who are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church must produce a certificate of license to preach, or a recommendation from a quarterly conference, signed by the pastor and the presiding elder. The form of recommendation authorized by the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church is as follows:

“ We, the members of the Quarterly Conference of..... hereby express our judgment that..... is called of God to the work of the ministry, and we recommend him as a suitable person to become a student in the School of Theology of U. S. Grant University.”

Applicants from other Churches will present the certificate usually given by the denomination to which they belong.

GRADUATION.

The degree of S. T. B. (Sacræ Theologiæ Baccalaureus) will be conferred upon students who have received the degree of A. B. or an equivalent and have completed the prescribed course of study.

Students not graduates of colleges but whose linguistic attainments and general scholarship have enabled them to be admitted to the regular course, will, after passing a satisfactory examination, receive the diploma of the institution.

Those who have pursued the English course for two full seminary years, and shall pass a satisfactory examination thereon, will receive the certificate of the institution.

COLLEGE OF MEDICINE.

Located in Chattanooga, and known as the Chattanooga Medical College, and embracing the services of about thirty instructors in the Faculty and Teaching corps. It occupies its own separate quarters in a large and imposing three-story brick edifice on the corner of Georgia Avenue and East Ninth Street, right in the business heart of the city, and close to both Central Railway Stations and all lines of the Electric Cars. The building will be largely remodeled inside during vacation so as to afford further increase of accommodations for the rapidly growing attendance as has been necessary each year since its organization.

The Medical College has reached its fifth year in a most prosperous condition, having enjoyed an unexpectedly large patronage and support from a vast scope of territory extending from Nova Scotia to Texas and California, including representatives in its classes from very many of the intervening States. Last year its matriculation list bore one hundred and sixteen names, and it sent forth a large graduating class from this number. Inquiries from prospective students all over the country have been received this year in excess of previous seasons at the present date—issuance of this Year Book—and the outlook is for a much increased patronage again during the coming season.

The College is fully equipped for training students in all the branches customary in medical educational work, including Practical Anatomy, Laboratory Drill, and Clinical and Dispensary Clinical Experience. The whole aim of its Faculty is to afford the best attainable inculcation of practical minutiae, and thus thoroughly indoctrinate its pupils for capable and creditable performance of future daily duties in professional life.

 This College issues a large and SPECIAL CATALOGUE OF ITS OWN, which can be had upon application, and wherein is fully set forth all requirements for matriculation and graduation, as well as the curriculum in detail, and a full list of the Faculty, students, and alumni in this Department of the University. Therefore further mention is unnecessary here, but can be obtained promptly when desired, by addressing the Dean,

It enters upon its fifth year with a careful and well selected faculty, among whom are Harry Wise, Dean; Dr. W. A. Applegate, Dr. M. Block. The session opens September 17, 1893, and lasts six months. The requisites for admission are the same as those of all other recognized colleges of pharmacy. The entire expense for the two sessions, including diploma fee, is $110. MOUNTAIN CITY BUSINESS COLLEGE.

(Commercial Department of U. S. Grant University.)

This is not a "department" in the sense usually applicable when speaking of commercial work in the literary schools, but a complete and thoroughly equipped business college, with every facility afforded by any other commercial school. The teachers are all specialists in their work, fitted for it by special training, and experience in business, as well as experience in teaching in leading business colleges.

The work of this department is divided into two courses: The Business Course, and The Shorthand Course. The Business Course includes Double Entry Bookkeeping, Business Correspondence, Commercial Correspondence, Commercial Arithmetic, Practical Grammar, Business Forms, Penmanship, Commercial Law, Banking, Spelling, and Office Practice. The Shorthand Course includes Shorthand, Typewriting, Business Correspondence, Grammar, Punctuation, Business Forms, Legal Forms, Spelling, Penmanship, Manifolded, Letter Copying, and Office Dictation.

Students entering either course of this department advance as rapidly as their ability and application make possible, since the work is largely individual.

Special advantages are offered the students in boarding, which, together with furnished rooms, can be had at a price much below that found elsewhere. In being able to greatly limit the expense of living, and at the same time give all the benefits of a business education which are gained only in a large business center, we claim unsurpassed facilities.

Write for separate illustrated catalogue, which is mailed free upon application, and gives very full information relative to the work of this college.

Address,

MOUNTAIN CITY BUSINESS COLLEGE,
Chattanooga, Tennessee.

DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC.

The design of this department is to furnish thorough instruction in the various branches of music. With this object in view, systematic study will be given to the fundamental principles of music; to the different forms and periods, and to the works of the masters.

Students will be received at any time, and, after satisfactory examination, will be given due credit for the progress already made.

The time necessary to complete the course can not be stated in advance, but will depend upon the previous attainments of the students; upon their ability, and upon the amount of time devoted to the study. At least one year of resident study in the department will be required before graduation.

To meet the increasing demand for well qualified teachers of music, special attention will be given those desiring to teach. Classes will be organized for instruction in the best methods of teaching; and in these, students may give lessons under the direction of the teacher. The Normal work is free to all receiving regular instruction in the department.

Among the advantages offered, none are of greater importance for general culture than the studies in Musical Literature, together with the recitals and concerts that will be given from time

Among the advantages offered, none are of greater importance for general culture than the to time. Advanced students will also receive drill in ensemble playing.

While no student will be allowed to take part in any public musical entertainment without the consent of the teacher, all students are required to assist in such work when they can do so with credit to themselves and the department.

DEPARTMENT OF ELOCUTION AND ORATORY.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

This school is designed to teach Elocution as an art, resting upon absolute laws of nature, explained and illustrated by exact rules of science, and to give a thorough and systematic training in all the principles upon which the art is based.

Each principle is presented as a vocal culture, then as an element of expression as found in nature. The voice is developed to produce the elements, the ear trained to detect them, and the mind educated to apply them in the delivery of all styles of composition.

The school is designed also as a means of liberal culture; its aim is not only to make readers, but thinkers as well.

It embraces such a system of personal and literary culture as to be of the highest value, not only to those who have a professional purpose in view, but also to ladies and gentlemen desiring a pleasant accomplishment.

COURSE OF INSTRUCTION.

It is difficult to express in a brief form the course of instruction given, but the following outline may, however, give an idea of the work required.

JUNIOR YEAR.

FIRST TERM.—Respiration, Calisthenics, Orthography, Voice Culture, Elements of Vocal Expression, Elements of Gesture, Exercises for Practice, English Literature, Rhetoric, English Grammar, Philosophy of Expression.

SECOND TERM.—Review, Voice Culture, Delsarte Gymnastics, Pitch, Inflection, Waves, Rhythmus, Cadence, Melody, Emphasis, Invention of Gesture, Action Analysis, Miscellaneous Readings, English Literature, Rhetoric, Physical and Vocal Culture, Delsarte, Analysis, Dramatic Action, Impersonation, Vocal Culture.

THIRD TERM.—Review, Physical and Voice Culture, Shakespeare. Stage Business, Impersonation, Delsarte, Pantomimic Expression and Gesture, Dramatic Readings, Orators and Oratory.

SENIOR YEAR.

This year will be devoted to the higher forms of Vocal, Verbal and Pantomimic Expression; to the study of Shakespeare; study of Synthetic Philosophy of Expression, and other work left to the selection of the Director.

Candidates for graduation from the one year course are required to take at least forty private lessons.

PHYSICAL CULTURE.

The body was created that it might serve the soul. If the mind and heart are educated to the noblest thoughts and feelings, the body should be educated to express them. We consider the body the natural servant of the soul, and cultivate it accordingly.

VOICE CULTURE.

The first, greatest, and most difficult thing is the direction of the tone; that is, focusing it to express the different shades of meaning. Therefore much attention is given to this subject.

DELIVERY OF SERMONS.

A sermon is a direct appeal to the highest sentiments and most disinterested motives of the soul. 1st, it must instruct; 2d, it must convince; 3d, it must move. These three principles must be harmoniously blended in the voice and manner of the preacher.

Special pleasure will be taken in assisting ministers of the Gospel desiring our aid.

INSTRUCTION TO STAMMERERS.

Stammerers are treated in the most practical and scientific manner.

The Principal has had a great deal of experience with students of defective speech, and in EVERY CASE with perfect satisfaction to both teacher and student. We can, therefore, speak most encouragingly to any such.

PUBLIC RECITALS.

Each member of the graduating class is required to give a program of readings and recitations before an audience of invited guests. These are occasions of marked interest, the performers always being greeted by refined and cultivated audiences.

JUVENILE CLASSES.

It remains no longer a question, but an acknowledged fact, that childhood is the proper age for beginning the study of elocution. In youth, before habits upon faults have rendered the individual stilted and self-conscious, the body, mind and spirit are pliable and receptive. In this matter surely, "An ounce of preservation is worth a pound of restoration." We have had scores of children under our instruction, and we always consider it a great pleasure. All under 14 years of age are admissible to these classes.

COST OF INSTRUCTION.

For each term, class tuition.....	$ 5 00
For one sixty-minutes private lesson	1 50
For one thirty minutes private lesson.....	75
For 20 one-hour lessons.....	25 00
For 20 half-hour lessons.....	13 00

For Juvenile Class, per term, 20 lessons.....	3 00
Graduation and diploma fee.....	5 00

RITTER INDUSTRIAL HOME

ATHENS, TENN.

FOR YOUNG WOMEN.

MRS. F. V. CHAPMAN, Superintendent.

MISS BELLE GEORGE, Teacher in Sewing Dep't.

This "Home" has been, during the past two years a constituent part of the University, and has fully demonstrated its usefulness and the popularity of domestic training in the South.

The plan of instruction is modeled after the best features of the world-famous Mount Holyoke School, founded by Mary Lyon, the most eminent teacher of her age.

Domestic instruction is now becoming the most popular branch in Vassar, N. Y., and Auburndale, Mass., as well as other famous schools for women.

The house is new, the rooms are large, light and well ventilated. The laundry and kitchen are provided with all the modern appliances to render the work light and easy to be performed.

The design of the management is to make this department a real home to its inmates. Each girl in the Home is expected cheerfully to contribute her share of service and loyal interest toward making it a delightful place for all. The domestic duties are arranged with such careful method that all the labor gives the students but the needed healthful exercise, without interfering with the progress in academic work.

Regular class instruction is given in cooking, plain sewing and dressmaking, for which no extra charge is made. The sewing classes give opportunity for girls to do their own sewing, without interfering with their progress in their school work. The domestic work is graded as are other school duties, and constitutes a part of the basis upon which class standings are made up, and promotions from class to class are made.

Pupils living in the "Home" not only get the benefit of the domestic instruction, but the system of co-operative housekeeping very much reduces the expenses of attending the University. The "Home" is managed entirely in the interest of the students; not to make money, but simply to pay running expenses.

Furnished rooms, fuel, lights and board are provided at $7.00 per month. Each month's dues are payable in advance. No girl entering the Home will be excused from her share of the domestic duties, except, of course, in case of illness. The discipline is mild, but firm.

Each girl entering the Home must bring satisfactory testimonials of character and capacity; and any failure of loyal co-operation may be considered sufficient reason for severing her connection with the school.

The Home will accommodate fifty pupils, and is in itself the Practice School for all the theoretic instruction. The boarding expenses can be considerably reduced by taking this course of domestic training.

The society having the Home in charge can give help sufficient to pay part of the expense, to a limited number of pupils of special promise. Persons wishing to avail themselves of this help must apply early to Mrs. F. V. Chapman, Athens, Tennessee, and arrange all the details before leaving home. None need apply who cannot meet part of the expense, for demands for help are so urgent and so numerous that each applicant must do her utmost to help herself. Only those who have the force of character to help themselves merit help from others.

 All non-residents are required to enter the Home or Board at Bennett Hall, unless they have near relatives living in the village.

CHARTER.

BE IT KNOWN, that Isaac W. Joyce, John M. Walden, Joseph C. Hartzell, D. M. Key, Halbert B. Case, Earl Cranston, J. H. Bayliss, M. D. Cone, A. J. Gabagan, T. C. Carter, J. K. P. Marshall, E. H. Matthews, John F. Spence, J. D. Walsh, Amos Shinkle, L. B. Caldwell and J. W. Adams are hereby constituted a body politic and corporate by the name and style of "U. S. Grant University,"* for the following purposes, namely: The maintenance of a university of Christian learning under the patronage, control and regulation of the Methodist Episcopal Church, as represented in the General Conference of said Church, with various colleges, academies, normal and preparatory schools, societies, lyceums, libraries, and schools of art, law, and medicine, normal, training, trade, and such other schools as may from time to time be organized by the Board of Trustees; with power to confer degrees; with authority to create Boards of Visitors, prescribe the mode of election and define their duties; such board or boards to be separate from, and in addition to, the Board of Trustees.

2. The property owned, or to be owned, or held by the corporation hereby created shall be so held and owned in the name of said corporation for the use and benefit of the Methodist Episcopal Church, under such trust clause, or clauses, as may be provided in the book of Discipline of said Church. And the government and management of said corporation, and the teachings in its several schools, shall forever be conducted in harmony and consonance with, and in the interest of, the said Methodist Episcopal Church, as set forth, or declared from time to time, by the General Conference of said Church.

3. Said corporation shall be self-perpetuating, subject only to the policy above stated. Any departure from the objects and policy of said corporation as above limited shall be good ground for removal of the Board of Trustees upon cause properly shown in the court of equity having jurisdiction, but shall not work a forfeiture of this charter.

4. The general powers of said corporation shall be to sue and be sued by the corporate name; to have and use a common seal, which it may alter at pleasure; if no common seal, then the signature of the name of the corporation by any duly authorized officer shall be legal and binding; to purchase and hold, or receive by gift, bequest, or devise, in addition to the personal property owned by the corporation, real estate necessary for the transaction of the corporate business, and also such property, real and personal, or special trusts, as may be deemed needful for special purposes;

and also to purchase and accept any real estate in payment, or in part payment, of any debt due to the incorporation, and sell the same; to establish By-laws, and make all rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the laws and constitution, deemed expedient for the management of corporate affairs; and to appoint such subordinate officers and agents, in addition to the president, secretary and treasurer, as the business of the corporation may require, designate the name of the office, and fix the compensation of the officer; elect such teachers, professors, and faculties of the various schools of the university as they shall deem best and fix the salaries of the same. The School of Theology, the School of Law, the School of Medicine and the School of Technology shall be located at Chattanooga, Tennessee. The College of Liberal Arts shall be located at Athens, Tennessee; with academic departments of equal grade at each place, and such other departments at either place as may hereafter be determined upon by the Board of Trustees *

5. The said corporation shall within a convenient time after the registration of this charter in the office of the Secretary of State, elect from their number a president, secretary and treasurer, or the last two officers may be combined into one; said officers and the other incorporators to constitute the first Board of Trustees. In all elections each member present shall be entitled to one vote, and the result shall be determined by a majority of the vote cast. Due notice of any election must be given by advertisement in a newspaper, personal notice to the members, or a day stated on the minutes of the board six months preceding the election. The Board of Trustees shall keep a record of all their proceedings, which shall be at all times subject to the inspection of any member. The corporation may establish branches or affiliated schools in any other county in the State.

6. This corporation shall have power to increase the number of trustees; to regulate the mode and manner of appointments of the same on expiration of terms of service; to remove any trustee from the said corporation when in their judgment he shall be rendered incapable, by age or otherwise, of discharging the duties of his office, or shall neglect or refuse to perform the same; to regulate the number, duties, and manner of election of officers, either actual or ex officio; to appoint executive agencies, and to pass all other by-laws for the government of said institution, as may be required by the Methodist Episcopal Church: Provided, said by-laws are not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of this State. At least two-thirds of the trustees shall be members in good standing of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The terms of all officers may be fixed by the by-laws; the said term not, however, to exceed three years. All officers and trustees shall hold over until their successors are elected and qualified.

7. The members may at any time voluntarily dissolve the corporation, by the conveyance of its assets and property to any other corporation holding a charter from this State not for purposes of individual profit, first providing for incorporate debts: Provided, the objects and aims of said corporation shall be the same and in harmony with those contained in this charter. A violation of any of the provisions of this charter shall subject the corporation to dissolution at the instance of the State, in which event its property and effects shall revert to the Trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church, a corporate body existing under, and by virtue of, the laws of the State of Ohio. This charter is subject to modification or amendment by the Legislature, and in case said modification or amendment is not accepted, corporate business is to cease, and the assets and property, after payment of debts, are to be conveyed, as aforesaid, to some other corporation holding a charter for purposes not connected with individual profit, and for the same objects and benefit of, and revert to, the aforesaid Trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Acquiescence in any modification thus declared shall be determined in a meeting of the members specially called for that purpose, and only those voting in favor of the modification shall thereafter compose the corporation.

8. The means, assets, income, or other property of the corporation shall not be employed, directly or indirectly, for any other purpose whatever than to accomplish the legitimate objects of its creation, and by no implication or construction shall it possess the power to issue notes or coin, buy or sell products, or engage in any kind of trading operation, nor holding more real estate than is necessary for its legitimate purposes, and in no event shall the trustees permit any part of the principal of the endowment fund, or funds, or any portion of the real estate of the corporation, to be used for the payment of the current expenses.

9. We, the undersigned, hereby apply to the State of Tennessee, by virtue of the laws of the land, for a charter of incorporation for the purpose and with the powers and privileges, etc., declared in the foregoing instrument. Witness our hands the 26th day of March, A. D., 1889.

The Board shall be restricted to the transaction of business named in the call. A notice of special meetings shall be sent to the Methodist papers within the bounds of the patronizing conferences.

¶4. It shall be the duty of each member to attend, when practicable, the meetings of the Board, and to use his best endeavors to promote the interests of the University.

¶ 1. The Board of Trustees shall enact By-Laws, Rules, and Regulations and shall elect the Chancellor and other members of the Faculty, and other officers of the University, and may remove them, or either of them from office, if after due investigation it shall appear that there is cause sufficient to justify their removal: Provided, neither the Chancellor nor other members of the Faculty shall be removed except by a two-thirds vote of the members present.

¶ 2. The Board of Trustees shall determine the salaries of all the members of the Faculty, and of all other officers employed or appointed by the Board; shall authorize and direct the expenditure of all the revenue derived from tuition, and from incidental charges, and from all sums paid directly by the students; and also of all gifts bestowed for the purpose of improving the grounds or buildings, for the increase of the library, the apparatus or other facilities of instruction; and shall prescribe the courses of study; and shall direct and act in all matters that relate to the proper government, discipline, and instruction of the students.

¶ 4. After the selection of the Board of Visitors, as contemplated by Section X of the By-laws, the members of such Board shall be entitled to participate in the annual meetings of said Board of Trustees, but shall not vote. The Board may order an executive session at any time during the annual meeting.

SECTION IV.
